

POGP Annual Conference – Renaissance Hotel, Manchester City Centre
Friday 19th September 2014

Friday 19 th September 2014 Parallel Sessions
13.00	Lunch and exhibition viewing
14.15	Welcome: Katie Mann
14.20	Jane Dixon Advanced Practitioner in Women's & Men's Health A Close Look at the Pelvic Floor – An Overview of 2D Ultrasound Scanning
15.00	Teresa Cook Women's Health Physiotherapist/Lecturer Professionalism in the context of formal POGP training – developing your ability to work to professional standards.
15.25	Yvonne Coldren Chartered Physiotherapist Beyond Crutches and Belts – Management of Pregnancy related Lumbar and Pelvic Girdle Pain
15.45	Refreshments and Exhibition viewing
16.15	Kate Lough Specialist Physiotherapist in Pelvic Floor Dysfunction Prolapse - assessment and conservative management: a snapshot of what's possible
16.35	Julia H Herbert Consultant Physiotherapist, Bladder, Bowel and Pelvic Floor Dysfunction POGP Physiotherapy assessment and management of ano-rectal dysfunction.
17.00	Gill Brook Women's Health Physiotherapist & POGP workshop tutor Physiotherapy assessment and management of female urinary dysfunction: essential and current evidence-based information on physiotherapy assessment and treatment
17.20	Judith Lee Clinical Specialist Women's Health Physiotherapist, Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust The POGP ante natal workshop explores the role of the physiotherapist in health promotion in the childbearing year
17.40	Conference Close
19.00	Drinks Reception and POGP Conference Dinner
00.00	Close